Tenacity

My Tenacity Adventure

When I first came to Tenacity, I was so scared I didn't know anyone there and everybody was staring at me. I felt so violated. People looked at me like I had 6 heads and 8 legs. I had already wanted quit and drop out. There was still hope for the afternoon I thought. (Because at the Fredrick we have literacy groups in the morning from 8:00-9:00 and Tennis from 3:45-5:00) (And you have to come in the morning to go in the afternoon.)

When I walked into the Reggie Lewis Center, it looked so large. I was overwhelmed. And that's because I never had been there before. I played Tennis but I wasn't really all that great. (But since then I've gotten really better since then.)

Now I really kind of like Tenacity because people don't look at me like I have 6 heads and 8 legs and I actually have friends here now too.

This has been my Tenacity story. Thank you for reading it!
